ONCE UPON A DIFFERENT TIME

by Marian Coe

★ Winner: Clark Cox Award for fiction from NC Society of Historians

JOIN a spirited group on a romantic adventure in the Appalachian mountains in 1884, as they travel on horseback from Abingdon, Virginia to the fashionable resort of Asheville, North Carolina. Novelist Marian Coe and artist Paul Zipperlin have woven an imaginative odyssey based on the true account by Charles Dudley Warner of just such a trip published in the Atlantic Monthly of the time.

INGALLS PUBLISHING GROUP Books are distributed through Atlas Books. Libraries served by Atlas, Follett, Ingram, and other wholesalers may order IPG Books through their regular channels. However, we are happy to serve libraries, schools and organizations directly, and to offer discounts on book cost and shipping.

* Classroom sets, curriculum and special packages available only from the author or publisher.

Contact our sales manager for discounts on quantity purchases for resale.
